

NEW LENOX LIONS FALL FESTIVAL AUG. 7 & 8

Joins Staff
Of Hedges Clinic
In Frankfort

Dr. Otto has come to Frankfort from the Charles Miller hospital, St. Paul, Minn., where he has just completed a year of training.

Dr. Otto is a graduate of Nebraska Wesleyan University and the University of Nebraska College of Medicine. Before entering medical school he served three years with the armed forces in the infantry. He was with the 99th Division in Europe and was decorated with the Silver Star and Bronze Star.

Dr. Otto is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Otto of Aurora, Neb., and brother to Dr. Claude Otto of the Hedges Clinic. Dr. and Mrs. Merle Otto have two children and are residing at the Henry Breidert house on Center Road in Frankfort.

New Lenox Farmer
Hopes to Keep Two
Salamanders Alive

It isn't every farmer who has salamanders on his farm, and in this respect Scott McBride, who lives with his wife and small son on the Brick Tavern farm on Lincoln highway, east of New Lenox, is unusual. In last week's issue we told how Mr. McBride discovered 11 salamanders on the floor of his barn, while milking his cows. Nine of them, unfortunately, were dead. But two were very much alive, and as these amphibians are quite rare he is keeping them alive.

Zoologically, the salamander is the spotted subviolet, and while he looks like a lizard he is in no way related to them. One cannot get a better idea of the salamander than to consider it a case of a frog that has halted at the last stage of the tadpole and gone no further. Salamanders may be known from lizards because they have neither scales nor claws. There are 16 North American species, all pathetically harmless, helpless creatures. They like to be near water, if not in it.

Salamanders, however, have the edge on many other creatures, in that they repair themselves readily when mutilated. For instance, if they happen to lose their tail, or even an eye, in all probability they will get a new tail or a new eye in from three to six months.

They have a taste for meat, especially hamburger and liver, and as Mr. McBride has found this out, and a few other things about them, he hopes to keep his two salamanders alive indefinitely.

St. Mary's To Hold
Men's Golf Tourney

St. Mary's Catholic church in Mokena has announced their first annual men's golf tournament, to be held Sunday, August 23, at the Woodruff golf course. This course is located four miles west of Mokena, on the Gougar road. There will be prizes and refreshments.

The U. S. Bureau of Mines' synthetic fuels demonstration plant near Louisiana, Mo., where experiments are conducted in producing gasoline from coal, employs nearly 500 persons.

LINCOLN WAY
ON SCHEDULE

Considerable progress has been made on the new high school building since construction started early last April. Work has progressed according to schedule, with little time lost on account of adverse weather or shortage of materials. A slight delay was caused in delivery of the structural steel, but the company has promised an early delivery.

Practically all of the concrete has been poured for the footings and walls, and about one half of the concrete floors have been poured. The various subcontractors have completed most of the roughing in work, necessary as the general work progresses. The two large heating boilers will be set this week, along with the 20,000 gallon oil storage tank. The storm and sewer tiles were completed some time ago, and the work on the sewage disposal plant has started.

Considerable difficulty was experienced in the drilling of the well, and in securing an adequate supply of water. The well was drilled to a depth of 353 feet, with a casing of 12". The first test on the well showed 60 gallons per minute, which was considered inadequate for any margin of safety. It was recommended to acidize the well to increase production. 200 gallons of acid were then poured into the well, which resulted in a much larger supply. Now the well will produce 105 gallons per minute, at a temperature of 52 degrees.

Most of the grading around the building has been finished and in the front. It was necessary to move approximately 37,000 cubic yards of dirt, since the front of the building was about six feet higher than the grade in the rear. Also, the parking lot to the west, required considerable fill. Now, this lot will accommodate 435 cars, and will serve all activities either in the building or on the athletic field.

An agreement has also been completed with the State Highway Department for the grading and utilization of the land owned by the State, between the present highway and the land owned by the district.

For the general information of the public, an unofficial financial statement, pertaining to the building funds, is hereby included.

Explorer Scouts
Keep Memorial Park
Cemetery Beautiful

The Explorer Scouts of Mokena are deserving of a word of praise for the fine work they have been doing regularly at Memorial park cemetery, on Wolf road, where a Revolutionary war soldier, Charles Denny, lies at rest. The Explorers have taken this as their project, and see to it that the grass is kept cut and everything in order.

Mr. Bob Kreml is the leader of the Explorers in Mokena and Mr. Harley Mann is commissioner.

Two Australian
Farmers Make Tour
Of New Lenox Farm

Among the six Australians who have been touring farms in Will county are F. J. Panek, whose address is Maryfields, Bowenville, Queensland, Australia, and Robert S. Vaughan, "Woodlands", Echuca, Victoria, Australia. Both of these "down under" farmers toured the farm of Ivan Archibald, of New Lenox, Friday, July 31.

Farmer Panek owns 3,000 acres in Australia, 2,000 of which are under cultivation, growing wheat and summer sorghums. They are also engaged in fat lamb production and raising beef cattle. In their state some parts are measured in square miles rather than in acres.

Farmer Vaughan owns 1,900 acres of land in Victoria, Australia, 500 of which are under irrigation. He grows wheat and barley, raises sheep, fat lambs and cattle. His farm is located in an extensive irrigation area in northern Victoria.

The world tour of the Australians was arranged by the Australian Overseas Travel Service, and costs each passenger from $3,000 to $4,000. Part of the group of 38 left Australia March 20 by boat, and the remainder went by Air April 20. The group assembled in Rome, and then toured the continent. They flew to New York City from England, arriving in this country July 19.

Church Group To
Lay New Church
Foundation Sat.

Members and friends of the Mokena Methodist church are going to repeat the occasion of last Saturday when they gathered at the church and laid concrete blocks for the foundation of the new church. They request all men members and friends to gather at the church this Saturday at 1:30 when they are hoping to nearly complete the project. They will work until six o'clock, at which time a potluck dinner will be served in the village park, as was done last Saturday, and which proved to be a very delightful affair.

PAIR OF CHINCHILLAS TO BE GIVEN AT MOKENA HOMECOMINGCleanup Crew Gets Busy On Old Public
School Property

For a good many years the former location of the old Mokena public school corner, at Front street and Tinley Road, has been used as a dumping ground. Trees, shrubbery, rubbish and what have you have been dumped there regularly, and the accumulation has become quite an eye sore. Because of this and the bad impression given to people driving past, some public spirited citizens decided to do some house cleaning.

The property still belongs to the Mokena public school district 159. As a corrective measure some of the directors and friends gathered at the corner Monday evening and worked hard towards making a start on cleaning it up. It was too much for one evening's work, however, and they said it will require at least three evenings work to make the premises sightly again. The men gathered the brush and burned as much as they could Monday night.

Those helping were school directors John Scarth, Hans Mueller, Gordon Bruce and Ed Yunkler, Harold Spiess and son Gordon also came over and gave a hand.

The school board aims to get this property cleaned up and posted so people will not dump rubbish there in the future.

LIVESTOCK
AT KANKAKEE

The Vocational Agriculture Fair for Section 10 will be held in conjunction with the Kankakee County Fair August 9-14 at the Kankakee County fair grounds three miles south of Kankakee on state route 49.

This includes all boys studying agriculture in the rural high schools of Kankakee, Iroquois, and a part of Will and Cook counties. There are twenty five departments in this section.

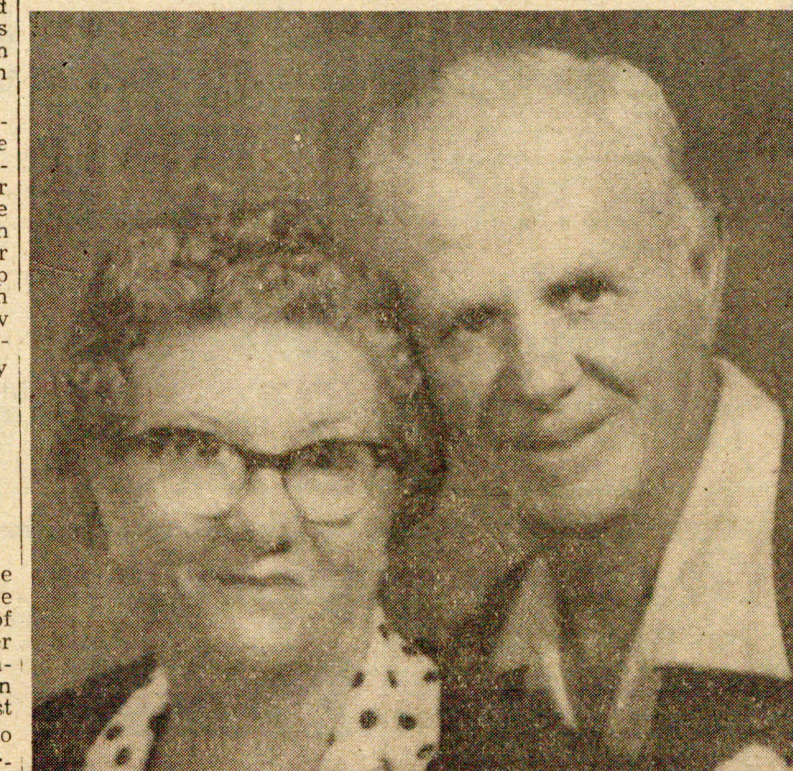

645 head of livestock consisting of beef, dairy, sheep and swine will be exhibited Monday, August 10 and Tuesday, August 11 by these FFA boys.

$1750 worth of premiums will be won by these boys. The Danish system of judging will be used wherein the animals will be grouped from A through D. The first five superior animals of the A group will receive ribbons. Premiums will be pro-rated to each group accordingly.

Tuesday will be FFA day. A parade and greased pig contest will be staged in front of the grandstand in the evening of August 11.

Here is an opportunity for you to note the progress some of the rural youth of your community are making. These agriculture programs, being developed by these boys, require work, time, much planning and careful investing. Here is teaching experience at its best.

You will find this a worthwhile show and time well spent should you decide to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Walsh, of Saugatuck, Mich., who celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Earl Schroeder, in New Lenox, Sunday, July 26, Mrs. Walsh is the former Stella Weber, daughter of Mrs. Emma Weber, of Lockport. The Walshes are well known in New Lenox. They moved from there to Saugatuck eight years ago, where they maintain summer cabins on Goshorn Lake.

Seek Donations For Auction Sale For
Mokena Homecoming

Among the interesting sidelights of the 14th annual Mokena Homecoming, which will take place Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 14, 15 and 16, is an auction sale. The sale will be held Friday evening, August 14 and also on Saturday evening, August 15.

Henry Clark, chairman of the auction sale, is looking for donations for this auction sale. It can be something brand new, given from the goodness of one's heart or something that has given its stint of service and has no longer any particular value to the giver, but which might be of great value to someone else—in other words, a white elephant, or antique.

Now it is believed that the basements and attics of Mokena residents are loaded with these white elephants and antiques, and to resurrect them and get them traveling towards the auction sale headquarters, a house to house canvass is planned for the village of Mokena. The canvass will be made north of the Rock Island tracks, Tuesday, the 11th. Citizens are requested to anticipate this canvass by making an advance survey of their premises and having their donations ready when the members of the pickup committee stop by.

Anyone outside of the village of Mokena who might have something for this auction sale who wishes to have it picked up should call any of the following telephone numbers and request a donation pickup. The telephone numbers to call are: Mokena 2573; 4364; 3254; 4362; 3751, 3592 and Frankfort 3131.

Aside from this, everyone should make it a point now to attend this auction sale on both nights. Only once in a blue moon will you have a chance to buy something you want at a rock bottom price. Furthermore, by supporting this auction sale and all the other activities of the Homecoming everyone will be helping to complete the purchase of the new park area and make ready and available for recreational activities of Mokena and vicinity.

The Homecoming is just around the corner, and everybody should be making plans to make the most of it.

Lightning Strikes
Fred Hentsch Home

Lightning struck the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hentsch, of Mokena, early Saturday evening at about 7:50. Mr. and Mrs. G. Long and their daughter live with Mr. and Mrs. Hentsch, their uncle and aunt. Mrs. Long and her daughter were in the kitchen at the time the bolt struck, and Mr. and Mrs. Hentsch were in the living room watching television. When the lightning struck it was accompanied by a deafening clap of thunder.

At this instant Mrs. Long looked through the open door into the bathroom and saw sparks flying past the bathroom window. She ran into the bathroom where she heard a sizzling noise. It evidently was what is called a "cold stroke" which hit the TV antennae, traveled downward through the house and was grounded on the water pipe. The bolt ran down the water pipe and in between the walls, and for several feet made holes in the copper tubing, which was like a sieve, with hot water gushing through. For two or three feet the bolt had melted the pipe and peppered it full of holes.

The men immediately shut off the water and proceeded with the business of repairing the damage, but it was not until 11 o'clock that night that they got the water running again. Every fuse in the house had blown out, which added to the difficulty.

The same windstorm Saturday evening blew down an apple tree that was loaded with apples on the George Smego farm in Frankfort. After the storm the Smegos went in the yard to pick up the apples, and there wasn't an apple in sight. The wind had evidently blown them away.

PUTS BAN ON GARBAGE FIRES

The Mokena village board met in regular session Tuesday evening. There have been many complaints made of unnecessary noises. The board discussed this situation and also considered passing an ordinance regulating the use of mufflers on cars in Mokena.

The village board in cooperation with the chief of police, is going to enforce parallel parking on Front street, from Wolf road to Division street. There have also been many complaints made of burning garbage in the village, with the result that during this hot weather the stench has been almost unbearable. Many people have recently called Mr. Scarth, president of the board, as well as other board members, and complained vigorously about this matter. They wanted to sit out in their yard in the cool of the evening after these hot, humid days, but could not do so because of the stench of these numerous garbage fires. Mr. Scarth stated in no uncertain terms that anyone who suffers from such a nuisance in future should sign a complaint and steps would be taken immediately to have it corrected.

W. A. Muehler was present at the board meeting and requested to have a water main laid under Wolf road to his land, which he plans to subdivide. The board did not grant this request, as it is not in accordance with a state board of health ruling, which does not permit a dead end water main. If the main were extended the dead end would be created, thus stopping the complete circuit of water. Mr. Muehler also requested permission to lay out streets in this subdivision less than 40 feet wide. This request was also denied, as it is against the policy of the board to lay out narrow streets. Mr. Scarth pointed out that the citizens of Mokena are now reaping the disadvantage and difficulties caused by narrow streets which were laid out by our pioneer forefathers, who did not foresee the need of wider streets in generations to come.

Dr. E. G. McMahon of the health board sent word that the owners of vacant property who fail to cut down their weeds are violating the law. The state law permits the village board to have the weeds cut in all such cases, and the cost of same levied against the property as a lien. It is a matter of good citizenship to have this work done, anyway.

Mr. Ray Hoolehan, president of the Mokena Lions club, was present to seek a permit to hold the Homecoming on Front street as usual. This was granted. A report was made that Police Chief Carter has a new Mercury car, with a revolving squad car light installed on top.

The report of the Chicago Bridge and Iron Co. was read, concerning their inspection of the Mokena water tower. In their report they recommended that the tank should either be patched or the edge at the top removed. They recommended a new roof and patching or replacing the bottom, and a new frost casing for the standpipe. Mr. Scarth recommended that the board ask for separate bids on each item of this work. He further recommended that the board handle water problems on a long range program basis, extending over five years. He recommended that a survey be made of the water problems by a survey committee consisting of two board members, George Bills and Edwin Hentsch, and

The New Lenox Lions Club will celebrate their sixth anniversary with a Fall Festival, this Friday and Saturday, August 7 and 8.

From a formation meeting of seven men in the basement of St. Jude's church in New Lenox, to an organization of 95 members who are buying the building is a feat very few organizations realize.

The Lions club of New Lenox has been an organization that has devoted its entire income to helping its community. The building which they have is open to many different organizations free of charge. Each month over 400 people have the use of this hall free. It has become more of a community hall than a privately owned building.

Besides furnishing New Lenox with a hall, the New Lenox Lions club has purchased electric stop signs for both public schools and furnished playground equipment for all three schools. Each year they put on an ice skating race and give medals. Together with the business men of New Lenox, they give both Christmas and Halloween parties. Each Christmas they give baskets to the needy. During its six years existence the club has given over 90 pairs of glasses to children who need them. They have also given many trophies to different organizations for different contests.

The New Lenox Lions club is one of the few Lions clubs in the state that helped to organize and sponsor two new Lions clubs during the year, they are Manhattan and Mokena. These are some of the reasons why everyone in New Lenox is proud of their Lions.

To help pay for these different activities, the Lions club has two big events each year. They stage a minstrel or talent show in the spring of the year and hold their annual Fall Festival in August. The festival will be held this Friday and Saturday, August 7 and 8.

There will be many different types of booths where those attending can have fun. All Lions members will take turns on the "Ducking Machine." There will be an auction each night and this event each year gets bigger. Many times people pick up remarkable values.

The Lions ask that anyone wishing to contribute any item for this White Elephant auction call Joliet 3-0212 or New Lenox 3431.

It is hoped by the Lions members that this festival will be their largest and they invite everyone to attend.

two non-members, Marshall Muller and Donald Ambuehl. They are to make this survey, which is to include the income and expenses of the water department and set up a budget on the tank and pump. Mr. Scarth then suggested that after the report of this survey committee is in hand necessary work on the water system be done in order of the most pressing need.

Mrs. Alvin Sorensen who had been appointed to make a village directory for the board, has done so. She estimates the village population at 1052. Lyman Teague, a member of the board, was appointed to make arrangements to have a new census taken of the village.

George Bills, chairman of the building committee, reported that he had sent a notice to persons owning property at 130 and 132 E. Front street, which is directly east of the Cooper and Hostert garage, that in the interest of the public they must remove these buildings, as they are likely to collapse from general decay, and as such constitute a fire and other hazards. Last year a fire started in these buildings.

Last year 8,600 Americans literally walked themselves to death. They were pedestrians killed in motor vehicle accidents. "Accident Facts", the National Safety Council's statistical yearbook, points out that pedestrian deaths were highest among city dwellers in 1952, with 5,450 killed in urban areas and 3,150 in rural. In 3,000 of the fatal pedestrian accidents, the victims were 65 years or older, according to the 1953 edition of the yearbook. Of all pedestrians killed, one in every 12 had a physical defect, such as defective hearing, defective eyesight, or illness.

Mrs. Robert Kuzel and daughter of Chicago are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Malloy.

Mr. E. Uhrhammer has suffered a broken wrist. Hope it will mend in a hurry.

Miss Judith Owen celebrated her seventh birthday Aug. 1. Her little friends attended a small party in her honor. Refreshments were served, and she received some nice gifts. Later her grandmothers Mrs. Mabel M. Owen and Mrs. Vera Sullivan and uncle Neil Sullivan attended the birthday dinner in her honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Korgaard and grandson Christopher, who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Korgaard left for their home in the east Aug. 4.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Korgaard entertained at their home Friday evening July 31 in honor of his birthday. Guests included friends and neighbors who wished Paul many happy returns. Delicious refreshments were served. A good time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gray from Seymour, Ia. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Crisman for four days. Mrs. D. R. Miller, mother of Mrs. Gray spent the four days with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Erick of New Lenox, who are Mrs. Crisman's parents.

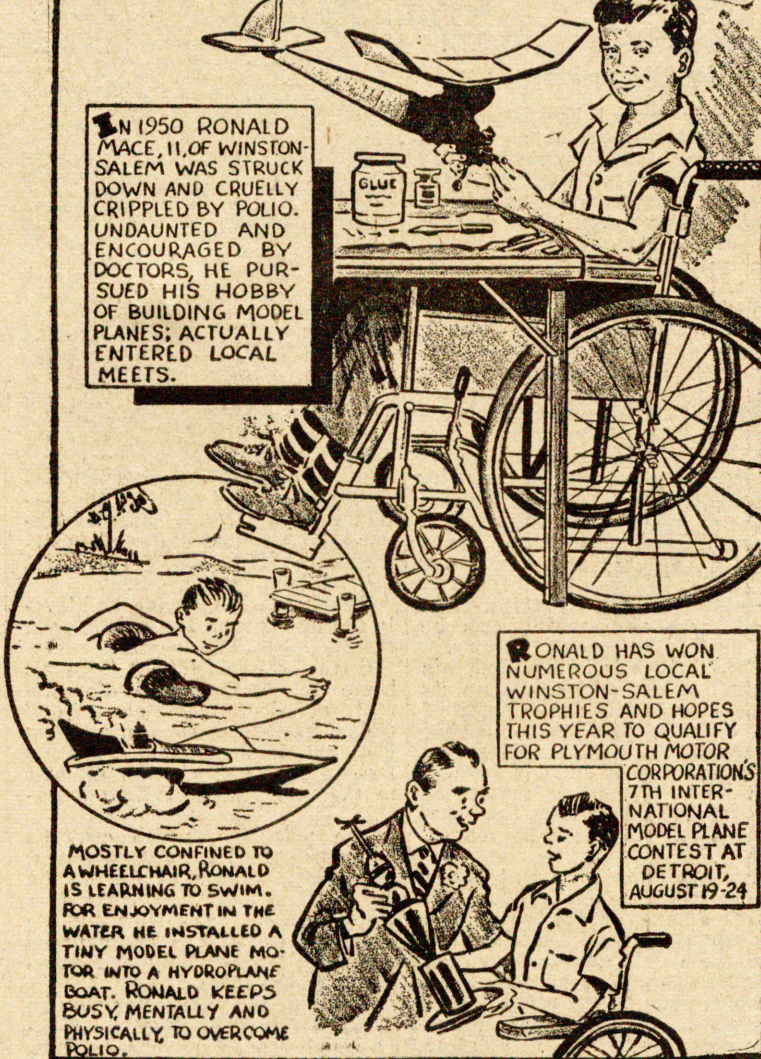

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Halik, parents of Mike Halik, are spending a few weeks in their old home town of Cicero, Ill. They are visiting two daughters and grandchildren.

Strange things happen in Lincolnwood. Morgan, the Meyers' family pet dog, bit into a fishing lure thinking it was a bone and anchored one of the hooks into his lower lip. With much howling on Morgan's part and much perspiring on the Meyers's, they finally managed to get it out by using a wire snip. Let this be a lesson to you Morgan.

Mrs. Robert Berls and sister Miss Mary Quintenz left for Oconomowoc, Wis. August 3 to visit their brother and family who have a summer home on Lake Okashee. We envy you gals

The Real Question

by Thurman Sensing
Southern States Industrial Council, Nashville, Tenn.

We hear much discussion and wrangling these days over foreign aid, balancing the budget, cutting taxes, etc. These are important matters and they deserve serious attention. But there is a great question that underlies all of these—the one real question: Shall we abandon freedom or shall we keep it?

This question, of course, may be worded in different ways and often is. Some of the ways are: Shall we have socialism or free enterprise? Shall we have state control or individual freedom? Shall we have government security or private initiative? Shall we have nationalization of industry or a free competitive economy? Etc.

Word it how we may, the words still say: "Slavery or Freedom? That is the Question."

That is not a new question; it is as old as the spirit of man. The dream of freedom has burned in the hearts of mankind throughout the ages. It has seen many milestones. It reached its highest fruition here in the United States of America. The question with us now is, Shall we keep it?

There are those who honestly believe the trend of the times is toward the socialism of centralized government and state control and that nothing we may do can stop it. The best that can be said of such an attitude is that it is defeatist and cowardly. It is not the spirit that built America and it is not the spirit that will keep freedom alive in the world.

It is undoubtedly true, of course, that so long as both good and evil exist in the world, there will be those who will try to enslave others, who will claim that the state should control the individual, who will say that the people should get their rights from the government, who will profess the belief that a small group of rulers can plan things better for the people than the people can plan things for themselves. But such persons are no friends of freedom!

This conflict has existed thru out history. It has existed in our own generation. It still exists. There are nations in the world where outward love of freedom may not be professed; it can only be seen secretly in the hearts of the people. There are other nations, like Great Britain and the United States, where deliberate attempts have been made during our generation to destroy the freedom which was the heritage of the people and establish in its place the socialist planning of state control.

It is to the eternal credit of both the people of the United States and of Great Britain that they have exercised the patriotism and the sound common sense to vote an end to this destruction of their freedom. Both peoples voted a restoration of private enterprise as opposed to state ownership, of individual state ownership, of individual initiative as opposed to a planned economy, of an incentive system as opposed to government provided security.

It remains to be demonstrated whether the present governments of the two nations will fulfill the responsibility which is theirs in carrying out the mandate which was given them. It also remains to be seen whether the people themselves actually meant what they voted, whether they are willing to undergo the certain amount of sacrifice and hardship that is necessary to return to a sound economy.

Britain is trying manfully to restore free enterprise to that nation. But it is difficult to unscramble eggs—and their economic eggs had been badly scrambled. Under their socialist Labor Government, much of the British industry was nationalized and their entire economy was completely controlled. This brought the nation to the verge of bankruptcy and degradation before the Conservative Government was voted back in office. They have made great recovery—but there are many who think the socialists will again get control, even if only of their record, and even though they are promising greater nationalization and stronger economic controls once they regain power.

Time—and the spirit of the people—will tell, both for them and for us.

Manager Explains Plenty of Peaches For 1953

Plenty of peaches this year is the prediction of fruit growers who anticipate a harvest of more than 55 million bushels. Southern peaches from Caroline Georgia and Arkansas have already appeared in local markets.

The first of Illinois' anticipated crop of 600,000 bushels will start to market about July 20 and will continue in quantity through most of August, says W. F. Lomasney, marketing specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

The crop looks as though it would be of top quality unless dry weather in southern Illinois continues. Prolonged lack of rain will cut down on the size of the fruit.

Elbertas, which make up about 80 percent of the Illinois crop, will start being shipped about August 5.

What Can Be Done With a Penny's Worth of Electric

A question often asked by a prospective buyer of a new electric appliance is: "Will it raise my electric bill?"

Based on long and careful studies, the Public Service Company has a four word answer to the question:

"Yes. But not much."

Anytime a new appliance is added, the company points out, more electricity will be used. But, generally, the increase is so slight it probably won't be noticed.

The company's residential electric service is provided on an incentive rate (the more used, the lower the rate per unit) which goes down to two cents per kilowatt hour for all over 100 used each month. Also, appliance manufacturers have improved their products over the years and today's household power savers are more efficient than in the old days.

The company's studies also show that rates for its electric service have been steadily reduced making electricity one of the biggest bargains in the family budget.

The average householder in northern Illinois, according to the research, can do these things for a penny's worth of electricity: Read by a 100 watt bulb for three hours, brew coffee for thirty minutes, Cool off in front of an electric fan for six hours, Run a food mixer for 2 hours, Iron clothes for 35 minutes, Listen to the radio for four hours, Watch TV for an hour and twenty minutes, Wash clothes for an hour and twenty minutes, Tell time by the electric clock for 144 hours, Refrigerate food for eight hours, Vacuum rugs for forty minutes.

These examples, says Public Service, are indicative of the low cost of electricity which makes possible so many work saving conveniences.

Even under the slightly higher rates recently asked by the company, the incentive rate will still apply to residential service with the bottom block remaining at two cents per kilowatt-hour plus a small adjustment for increases in the price of fuel, the company reported.

Many Misunderstand Social Security

A year and a half of work that counts toward social security provides monthly benefits only in case the worker reaches 65 or dies before July 1954. Mr. Joseph B. Harper, manager of the Harvey social security office points out. Mr. Harper says that some people have been led to believe that a year and a half of covered work is all that any one needs to get benefit payments under social security. He emphasized that the length of time one must work to become insured is determined by the worker's date of birth.

"To become insured and stay insured," he said, "the person must continue in work covered by the law at least one out of every two years after 1950 (or after reaching age 21 and up to the time of retirement or death)." Or, as he explained, the person must have social security credit for enough covered employment before 1951 to make up the difference. Social Security credit for work before 1951 may be added to credits gained in covered employment or self employment after 1950 to give the worker the required amount.

Mr. Harper says another wide spread misunderstanding is the meaning of the average monthly earnings on which social security benefit payments are based. "Some people," he says, "believe that their average earnings are determined by using only the years in which they were engaged in work covered by law. He says that all years after 1950, from age 21 to 65, are counted in arriving at the monthly average. Periods of non-employment, or early retirement from self-employment will cut down the amount of the average monthly earnings and may cause old age and survivors benefit payments to be less than the insured worker or his dependent family expected.

Mr. Harper urges that workers get up to date information about what the social security program means to them and their families. The Harvey social security office is located at 178 E. 154th street and is prepared to assist workers or their survivors in the filing of claims and other related matters.

To Plane Narrow Strip

ANY craftsman knows how tricky it is to plane narrow wood strips. American Builder, a magazine which is an authority for professional craftsmen, shows how to do it in a simple, effective manner.

As illustrated, take two pieces of 2 x 4's, clamping the narrow strip between and using a C-clamp at each end to hold them together. Between the 2 x 4's, place a spacer strip of the same thickness as the piece to be planed.

Christian's Fight

Lesson for August 9, 1953

"IT'S a bonny fight," were the last words of a sermon by Rev. Andrew K. Rule: "don't ye want to get in it?" Reverend gentlemen do not always present Christianity in such vigorous terms. One hears more often something to this effect: "It's a water-tight Ark; don't you want to be pulled aboard?" or "It's a wonderful school; don't you want to register?" or "It's a fine laundry; drop in and get clean!" or "It's a great hospital; don't you want some treatment?" Well, of course Christianity can be presented in all these ways. But A. K. Rule being (by Dr. Foreman way of New Zealand) a Scotsman, he would present Christianity in terms of what all Celts dearly love—a fight. This is not an original idea. Paul had it long ago.

That Apostle spoke of the Christian life as one that has to be lived in battle, and as we would say, He even spoke of it as a prize-fight (1 Cor. 9). At the end of his life he referred to all of it as a "good fight."

The Nearest Enemy
God himself is presented in the Bible as a battling God. The Greeks might think of him as serene above the sky, untroubled and untroubled; but the saints who wrote the Bible knew God as one who has a fight on his hands and who wages unceasing war on a persistent enemy. Not that the issue is in doubt. The great message of the Bible is that God will win. But meanwhile, the fight is on. The Christian is one who has enlisted in the army of God. God's enemies are his enemies. So far as this world is concerned (we have no present concern with any other) our enemies, and God's, are all those forces which tear down and destroy God's purposes, everything that tears and destroys humankind. Now the Christian is bound to fight everything in public and in private life which weakens and corrupts man; but the nearest enemy to every Christian is—himself. It is not true that a man is his own best friend; but it is true that he is his own worst enemy. A man can do himself more harm than any one else can do him. Many a man has lost the outer battle because he never won the fight with himself.

Fight Against Surrender
There are two opposite ways in which we have to battle with ourselves. These correspond to two kinds of temperament, and yet perhaps no man is entirely free from the need to fight on both these fronts. One is the fight with the drifter in us, the tendency to dream, to drift, to float with the tide, to let other people make all our decisions for us. We are surrounded by a pagan society, and it is not easy to maintain a higher standard. We haven't the energy to "buck" popular opinion. It takes a great deal of energy, it calls for a fighting heart, to make headway against the tide of "everybody says," "everybody does." The Christian who knows the harm which alcohol does to personality, the Christian who wants to live a clean life in this or in other ways, will in many places have to be "made of sterner stuff" than most people are. It is the person who has won a victory over himself who is best able to help others.

Fight for Control

There is another kind of inner battle: the fight against our own wills. The other battle was against our lack of will; this is against will itself. We are not born or made in such a way that we can do whatever we feel like doing and always be right. Indeed if we follow our natural inclinations we may end by being often wrong than right. And just as some temperaments lean to laziness and don't-care, so other temperaments lean too far the other way. If some people are like putty, others are like gasoline vapor, likely to explode any minute. It may be temper, it may be sex, it may be drink, it may be selfishness in any one of its countless forms. We can put it this way: There is in some of us all the time, and in all of us some of the time, the urge to shove every one else and everything else out of the way and make I WANT the rule of action.

SCIENCE and your Health
VACATIONS—AND HEALTH
by Science Features

A very special health problem plagues Americans at about this time every year. It might be called "vacationitis." It is characterized by such symptoms as hay fever, sunburn, and poison ivy rash. It is one of the hazards of the annual family trek to the shore or mountains.

Vacationitis usually isn't a serious ailment. Hay fever can be avoided by getting allergy shots, sunburn by gradual exposure to the sun, and poison ivy—by staying away from the poison ivy plant. But there are some diseases encountered at vacation time which can be quite serious.

One of these is Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever, which, despite its name, may be found in any part of the country, particularly during the summer months. The disease is transmitted from animals to man by ticks—which means that those who go on hunting trips are especially likely to come in contact with it.

Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever can be very serious. Before the advent of the antibiotic drugs it was sometimes fatal, but since that time the death rate has dropped sharply. Cases have been reported in which patients treated with tetracycline showed a disappearance of symptoms within 48 hours after the antibiotic was given.

In any event, health authorities recommend that wherever you go on vacation you determine the location of the nearest physician—just in case.

Tips on Touring
By Carol Lane
Women's Travel Authority

Litter left behind at a camp or picnic site may be a sign of past enjoyment, but it's a future headache for fellow tourists. If you've ever stopped at a spot despoiled by its former occupants, you know that a "litter-bug" wreaks more havoc upon picnickers than ants or other insects possibly could.

Litter is unnecessary because it's so easy to leave a neat trail behind you. Picnic grounds, state and roadside parks are usually equipped with a trash receptacle for "left-overs." If you've had a barbecue, weiner roast or steak fry, do what I do—bury the signs of your fire. If no bin is handy, take along your litter for disposal later.

Some people leave picnic and camp sites neat, but litter up the insides of their cars. When you travel, your car is your home away from home. Keep it as neat and "picked up" as you would your own living room. Other travelers preserve the neatness of their cars at the expense of the nation's highways — by "marking" their trail with refuse. It's easy to avoid either extreme. Just take along a paper bag or box in which to store your trash temporarily.

It's easy to be a good Samaritan when you travel. Make sure that future drivers, campers and picnickers will not be the victims of your untidiness.

Heads Fund Drive

RUSSELL MAGUIRE

Russell Maguire, New York industrialist and Chairman of the Board of the American Mercury, has been named National Chairman of the Glen Eyrle Endowment Fund to develop Glen Eyrle at Colorado Springs, Colorado, as an evangelistic headquarters for the nation. The property will be used as a retreat house and for research and study by the members of the Billy Graham and other religious youth groups.

Glen Eyrle was built by General William J. Palmer, pioneer railroad man of the West and the founder of Colorado Springs, and was completed in 1940.

It comprises a castle and numerous other buildings which lend themselves ideally to the purposes of the evangelistic movement headed by Billy Graham, who is Honorary National Chairman of the fund.

NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT ON ILLINOIS

Most beautiful girl in the nation is Myrna Rae Hansen of Illinois—Miss United States of America in the Miss Universe contest held in Long Beach, Cal.

The statuette, blonde, and lovely Chicagoan represented Illinois in the annual beauty event.

Coincidentally, Miss Hansen's home state is featured in the current issue of National Buyers' Guide, published each month by National Business and Property Exchange, Inc., hence her interest in the marketing service publication.

The magazine, which contains more than 2,000 businesses, farms, and income properties for sale in the Midwest and West, contains a special article on Illinois by the governor, as well as photographs depicting the economy and prosperity of the state.

Copies of the publication may be obtained free from National Business and Property Exchange, Inc., 4101 W. Third St., Los Angeles.

Comments From The Bench

By Ruth

The Frankfort Girls Softball Team traveled to Tinley Park, Friday evening, where they played the Oakes, a girls team from Oak Forest. It was their first game under lights and the Frankfort girls came home happy with a 19 to 8 win.

Agnes Hawrysis was the Oakes' pitcher and Kay Hayes did the catching. Arleen Cameron came on in the seventh, after much damage had been done and retired the side. For Frankfort, it was Arleen Felscher, pitching, and Carole Peterson, catching.

Oak Forest scored six runs in Frankfort's three in the first inning and acquired one more tally in the third. Frankfort got two runners across home plate in the fourth, shaving the lead slightly, 7 to 5. In the sixth, Carole Peterson started off with a single and Irene Benck trip led and scored on the catcher's overthrow, tying the score at 7 all. Then—Lois Steinbach singled, LaVerle Mackey got to first on an error, Jean Lentz got a base hit, and Delores Krohn got credit for two RBIs when she hit a grounder and was safe at first with a fielder's choice. Then Frankfort surged ahead 9 to 7 while Oak Forest was held scoreless for three innings.

The seventh inning was a joyous headache for this scorekeeper. The entire lineup exploded with a barrage of blows: Carole Peterson, two singles, Irene Benck, a triple and a walk, Lorraine Redman, (the newest and littlest member of the squad) a base hit and a walk, LaVerle Mackey, a triple and a single, two base hits for Jean Lentz, a single for Delores Krohn, a walk for Barbara Hauser and a two base blow for Arleen Felscher. Ten of the girls scored to spell defeat for Oak Forest.

In the last of the seventh, a determined Oak Forest team came up to bat, and after two were out, Agnes Hawrysis got on first. A line drive went past Irene Benck at third and was stopped by LaVerle Mackey at deep short, but too late for the toss. The next batter struck out, but not before the runner stole around the bases and home on an overthrow and passed balls.

During the course of action, Irene Benck had the wind taken out of her sails by a runner coming into third, and Lorraine Redman suffered a slightly sprained ankle. Coach Reuben Borms sent in Jean Schifler to run for Lorraine.

It was a game filled with action and suspense as the teams seemed well matched, and a victory was within either team's grasp until the last inning.

The Frankfort girls will play at home this evening and the visiting team will be the Matteson girls. Game time is set for 6:30 pm.

Death came to Senator Robert A. Taft last Friday. High words of praise came from everywhere in the nation, and from abroad, and although Senator Taft has already taken his place among the immortals and has passed out of the news we would not feel quite right about it if we did not speak, at least briefly, what is in our mind about this brilliant leader.

He was called "Mr. Republican" because he so clearly typified the spirit of the old Republican party which was born in 1856. And, while he was never given by his party the honor of becoming the President of the United States, like his illustrious father, William Howard Taft, he was the leader of Republican forces in the senate for many years.

We do not believe that "Mr. Republican" was quite the name for Senator Taft. For party interests were always secondary to him. His one outstanding interest, in his devotion to which he never for an instant wavered, was the United States of America. Senator Taft was first of all an American. A champion of individual liberty and the American way of life who thought and acted always from his belief of what is best for his country regardless of party. Senator Taft set an example for his colleagues in the senate and the house. He might better have been called "Mr. American."

Among his last words were, "Ike needs me." True enough. But he might have said, "America needs me." America will always need clear thinking, courageous men like Senator Taft of Ohio and Senator Borah, of Idaho, who answered the last call many years ago. Taft like Borah, stood like a rock against anything that might endanger his beloved America.

It is our sincere hope that someone will come along some day to take his place, and while we do not see such a person on the horizon right now, we firmly believe that the Hand that guides nations will eventually bring us a leader to take his place.

Midget Auto Races At Joliet Stadium To Be Run Wed., Sat.

Special events will fill in half of the remaining schedule as midget auto racing goes on a twice-a-week basis starting next Saturday night in Joliet Memorial Stadium at 8:30 p. m., trials 7:30.

The regular program of seven races, including a 25 lap feature is on tap next Saturday, while a 50 lap feature race will highlight activity the following Wednesday night (August 12). It will be the mid-season championship run.

From then on racing will continue on a Wednesday-Saturday basis, with the exception of August 19, when the Chicago Bears occupy the stadium for an intrasquad game.

Meanwhile, the fight for the track championship goes on.

Junior Market Hog Show to Be Held In Chicago Aug. 25

Keen competition is expected on August 25 at the International Amphitheatre when midwest farm boys and girls exhibit hogs of their own raising at the 1953 Chicago Junior Market Hog Show and Marketing Day, show officials report.

Many educational features are also being planned for this year's event. The management announces that no entry fees are charged other than the regular marketing charges for yardage and commission.

REFERENDUM TO DETERMINE WHEAT SUPPORT

If growers disapprove wheat marketing quotas in the August 14 referendum, price support loans for the 1954 crop wheat will be greatly reduced.

According to Carl M. Bormet, chairman of the Cook County PMA Committee, if quotas are turned down, the price support loan will be cut almost in two, and the loan will be available only for those who do not exceed their wheat acreage allotments. Those who exceed their allotments have no assurance of any price support.

This, according to Chairman Carl M. Bormet, is the decision which Cook county wheat growers will be up against when they vote in the referendum. If quotas are approved, and it takes a two-thirds majority to approve, wheat loans to cooperators will be at 90 percent of parity. If the vote is unfavorable, the loan to cooperators will be 50 percent of parity. Parity as of June 15, 1953 was $2.42 a bushel. Ninety per cent of this figure is $2.18, whereas 50 percent is $1.21.

Farmers who will be engaged in the production of wheat in 1954 on a farm on which the acreage to be planted to wheat will be in excess of 15 acres and who are entitled to share in the proceeds of the crop as owner or tenant are considered eligible to vote in a referendum.

Voting place in South Cook county will be at the County PMA office, South St. & 66th Court, Tinley Park, Illinois, August 14, 1953, from 10:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m.

WASHINGTON WEEK

Ever since World War I there has been a yearning for world peace among the peoples of the earth. In spite of the ill-fated League of Nations and the now almost defunct United Nations—organizations dedicated to world peace—there is no peace, and the world seems farther away from world peace than it was 25 years ago.

Since World War II our government has spent and given away $250 billion to insure peace in the world. We have been spending for possible war and the prevention of war at the prodigious rate of over $60 billion each year.

Big spending means big taxes. Although the profits of our corporations are at an all time high—$40 billion in 1952—the "tax take" from these corporations was $23 billion, leaving only $17 billion (or 42% of their profits) for distribution to the stockholders, for depreciation and replacement of machinery, for expansion, and for reserves. When big government takes in taxes almost 60% of all corporate profits it becomes almost impossible to attract risk capital, to start new enterprises, or to expand present ones. It also makes it impossible for young growing industries to expand in order to create new jobs for the 800,000 new workers that enter the labor market each year.

Because of our present burden some tax rates—and especially because of the impact of the Excess Profits Tax upon our young growing corporations—American industries today are being strangled because they are prevented from ploughing back into their profits. This prevents them from expanding as a result of their own efforts. It also makes it practically impossible for them to attract risk capital for expansion. As a result the Federal government has to either lend the necessary capital for plant expansion, or go into the business of building and operating industries of all kinds in competition with private industry—which it has done.

We have been traveling at a rapid rate down the road toward government ownership and operation of the means of production—the socialistic goal. Our oppressive tax rates constitute the principal means by which this socialistic goal is being attained. The key to any adequate defense in Europe against Communist Russia is Germany. Even in defeat, with her territory carved up and given away, with thousands of her people handed over in slavery to the Russians, Germany is still a great country. The Republic of Germany, if the people themselves control it, will make faster strides towards recovery than any nation scourged by the flames of war.

There are some very good reasons why this is so.

First, Germany is rich in resources. Second, her people are followers of the Christian religion, regardless of denominations. Third, German people are an educated people. Fourth, the German people will work. They are a proud people and do not spend their time sitting on the doorstep of the United States Treasury looking for handouts.

Under these circumstances, if there is any country in Europe that should be given consideration financially and economically, it is Germany. When the troubles of Europe are settled we will find Germany united, East and West, a great pillar of strength for peace in Europe.

The two wars in which Germany has been engaged in our time were not caused by the German people, but by their leaders. Even we are not free from the errors and mistakes of our leaders. Germany is now a Republic. Having been so recently freed from dictatorship, her people will now appreciate their government and protect it with more vigilance than we do our own.

BABSON SAYS—

Gloucester, Mass. Aug. 6—It is a beautiful summer day and I have had time to think of the great changes which have taken place since my boyhood and the foolishness of worrying about what changes can do. The sailing ships are all gone and my father thought this was the end of the fishing industry. Worst of all the old New England families began to fade away. The old timers then certainly felt this would be the end of Gloucester.

Yet, the fishing business today is greater than ever. The sailing vessels have been replaced by power driven draggers bringing in a million pounds of fish each day. The old families are gone, but the population is larger with industrious Italian families taking the lead. Certainly, my father and his friends lost much time in useless worry.

I am sorry that the churches have not grown with the industries. I see nothing here which can take their place. Gloucester has a splendid symphony orchestra consisting of local people. It has an active library and historical society. It has become an important art center. Whether these cultural developments will take the place of the religion of my youth is doubtful. Liquor continues to be a curse, but I see no drunkenness on the streets.

Although the Korean truce has been signed, most people here feel that it won't amount to anything. They are still worried—see what Russia could possibly do about World War III. I can't gain by war now. The Chinese would like to use their time and money in building up their own country. I believe the time is approaching when a foreign army will refuse to fight any free nations. More likely, national armies are apt to strike at home to correct conditions in their own countries. In fact, the military and veterans may some day control the United States. Being a veteran already counts more in getting a position than being a college graduate, although those who enjoy both have the best chances. Surely, those who live on farms or in small cities have little to fear.

Parents who have been worrying about their boys in Korea should realize that the last twenty years of war have not had as many casualties as a similar previous period suffered from scarlet fever, diphtheria, typhoid and pneumonia. If you are worried about juvenile delinquency, just see that your boy works hard all day so that he wants to go to bed after supper instead of running about town. Most juvenile delinquency could be abolished by merely changing the laws as to boys and girls working. Although I sometimes think that even the driving of automobiles by kids may be better training for their brains than some of the subjects which they are taught at school.

Keep in mind that a certain proportion of the taxes paid by businessmen will help business during a depression. Taxes paid for the support of farm prices, payment of minimum wages, old age assistance, and the cost of schools will come back to us. Hence, don't worry so much about taxes.

I recently attended a meeting protesting high prices, which the speaker blamed on the money paid out by manufacturers and retailers for advertising, research, etc. Still millions of people today owe their jobs to such expenditures. If any reader is out of a job, it is probably because some penny-pinching employer cut off advertising.

I have a very old Bible (1477 before Columbus discovered America); every word penned by

Make Better Hay
... Cut Work
and Costs

JOHN DEERE FORAGE HARVESTER

You'll make the most from your hay crop . . . harvest it cured for the mow or green for silage, with less work and at lower cost with a John Deere Forage Harvester.

With the John Deere you can adjust the length of cut from an easy-to-fork 3-1/2 inches for field-cured hay to a compact-packing 1/2-inch for windrowed green silage crops. What's more, you harvest your crop in an easy, speedy trip through the field to hold muscle-work and costs to rock-bottom.

Chopping hay stretches your crop by making all of it palatable. Converting it to grass silage not only makes a nutritious, economical ration for your livestock, but enables you to save your hay crop when bad weather threatens.

And, the John Deere can be quickly converted for harvesting row crops. See us for details.

Why Blanch?

Be sure to blanch all vegetables when you prepare them for the home freezer. Blanching slows or stops the action of the enzymes.

Up to the time a vegetable is picked, the enzymes help it mature. After that the enzyme turns bandit and robs the vegetable of its flavor, color, texture and food value.

Freezing alone doesn't stop the enzyme action. That is why unblanched vegetables become dark and tasteless in the freezer.

Most vegetables are blanched by submerging them in boiling water. Use a large covered kettle and a fine mesh basket that fits into it. Some mesh baskets have a cover to keep the vegetables down in the water.

It is important to adhere strictly to the blanching time given in your freezing guide for each vegetable, says Frances Cook, foods specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. Overblanching can spoil the texture of the frozen product.
